The Good Work of Prohibition

Figures recently published have shown the enormous decrease in the number of arrests in Kentucky towns for all criminal charges, and particularly on the charges of being drunk or disorderly, growing out of the use of intoxicating liquors. The Statewide Prohibition Federation now presents statistics to show that in all the cities of the country the result has been the same, showing a great decrease in the number of arrests in such cities as Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Baltimore and New York.

Arrests in Allegheny county, Pa., in which Pittsburgh is situated, decreased 90 per cent. the first month of prohibition. The first dry Saturday in Baltimore witnessed a drop in the number of arrests from 377 to 50. In Boston the average of Saturday arrests before prohibition went into effect was 300. The first Saturday after prohibition went into effect the number of persons arrested was five.

Chicago perhaps shows as remarkable results as any of the larger American cities in the reduction of crime since the elimination of the saloons. Judge W. N. Gemmell, of that city, says July arrests dropped 36 per cent. from the same month a year ago and in August the reduction was 51 per cent. In July Chicago suffered from riots a great deal of liquor was stored and much of it was used, and in spite of all this arrests dropped 36 per cent. from the figures of the previous July when Chicago was wide open.

The Federation urges all dry voters to go to the polls November 4, and vote for the Statewide Amendment, carrying it by such a large majority that the bootleggers will not dare to ply his trade in Kentucky, if he can find any way to obtain the liquor necessary to carry on his nefarious business. The amendment, according to the instructions given by Secretary of State, James P. Lewis, will be submitted on a separate ballot, and all voters are urged to ask for that ballot and cast it before leaving the booth November 4th.

Robbins' Name on Ballot

By decision of the Court of Appeals, the name of Sherman Robbins will be placed upon the ballot as the Republican candidate for Representative in this district. Robbins' name was to be withheld because he failed to file his expense account. The Appellate Court held that where a candidate is given the nomination, for the want of opposition at any time before the primary, it is not necessary to fill any expense account.

Severe Wound in Hand

Mrs. Ray McKinney several days ago stuck a needle deep into the flesh of her hand. She recently had an operation performed to relieve her suffering, but the proper relief has not been attained and she continues to suffer. She was in Winchester Friday to see a physician there in regard to her hand.

Turn Clock Back Oct. 26

Sunday Oct. 26, is the date set to turn back the clock one hour, and it will not be turned up in the spring again, the law having been repealed some weeks ago over the President's veto. Farmers, pretty generally, have never observed the law, so they have nothing to turn back. It has all along worked hardship on farmers that employ labor, as the labor always wanted to quit on time in the afternoon. Thus the extra hour to be gained in the early morn was lost to the farmer at the close of the day. The only objectionable feature with many, however, was that the time should have been the same winter and summer.

Speaking at Stanton

W. P. Kimball, of Lexington, a former Congressman, and A. H. Stamper, Democratic nominee for Representative in this district, addressed a good audience at the Court house in Stanton Monday. Their speeches were well received and frequently applauded. The Democrats of this county are in harmony and will poll their usual vote, which means about 100 majority for all the nominees.

Musical Entertainment

Mrs. J. B. Eaton and daughter, Miss Ruth, entertained Friday night with a musical recital by the former's cousin, Prof. Wayland Graham, of Frankfort. Prof. Graham proved unusual ability as a musician, and those present were of the unanimous opinion that his entertainment could not be excelled, even by many of the highly paid musicians.

Arbor Day

The last Friday of October, the 31st, has been designated as Arbor Day to be observed by the public schools of the state. It is urged that all persons observe the day by planting at least one tree. On many farms of Powell county it would be well that the tree planted be a fruit tree, and that a hundred bushes be cut away.

Fair Next Week

The Powell County Agricultural and School Fair will take place at Stanton next Friday the 17. A nice list of prizes are offered. Every citizen of the county should lend encouragement to the undertaking by being present if reasonably possible.

Mrs. Blount Undergoes Operation

Mrs. Nelson Blount underwent an operation Friday at Lexington for ulcer of the liver. She stood the operation very well and late reports to her husband say she is slightly improving. Dr. Martin took her to the hospital and assisted in the operation.

Rose--Rose

Mr. Butler Rose, a farmer of Clay City, and Miss Martha D. Rose, also of Clay City, were married by County Judge Evans in his office Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock.—Winchester Sun.

Commissioned as Major

Dr. Irvin has received a commission as Major in the Officers' Reserve Corps of the United States Army. It will be remembered that the Doctor entered the service as a 1st Lieutenant, soon after the entrance of the United States into the world war, and was afterward promoted to the rank of Captain. His promotion dates from about two weeks after he was discharged in May, and he could have remained in the service with the new rank, but he preferred to return to Clay City rather than remain in the army and wear the gold leaf.

Moore Released on Bail

Linc Moore, indicted at the September term of the Wolfe Circuit Court for the murder of Frank Vanderpool, of near Torrent, on September 4th, and who surrendered himself to Sheriff Shiloh Swango last Thursday, was on Friday released, having readily made the bond which was placed at $5,000.00.—Campton Tribune.

Moore is a son-in-law of Mr. H. G. Crabtree, of this city. Moore was also shot by Vanderpool, but was not arrested, it seems, until he recovered and gave himself up. Moore was Deputy Sheriff and shot Vanderpool while he was resisting arrest.

Standardizing The Schools

Superintendent Caudill is instituting a uniform system of examination for all the schools of the county. Examination questions are being prepared for twenty-nine different subjects and grades to be furnished all the schools of the county. Supt. Caudill has arranged for the printing of these questions at the Times office and will be ready for the different teachers in a few days.

Enters Automobile School

Edmon Burgher, of this office, has gone to Detroit, Mich., and entered the Michigan Automobile School. He aims to thoroughly prepare for the trade and when so qualified, will probably return and open a garage in Clay City, for which the town is in great need.

Campaign Books

The Times is in receipt of both the Republican and Democratic campaign books. They are both very interesting reading. The Republican book was issued first and asks what has become of the money. The Democratic book shows where it is gone.

Revising Prices Downward

Hardwick & Co., have revised some of their prices downward in their advertisement in this issue of The Times. Look at their ad each week for change in price. Soon as a drop in price is justified it will be made by this firm.

Still Improving

Mr. H. G. Crabtree continues to improve from the long siege of typhoid. He is now beginning to walk about the premises.

Damage From Fire Averted

Some excitement was caused last Thursday afternoon by a small conflagration at the Clay City Hotel property. An oil stove got too high while members of the family were absent in the room, and filled the house with smoke, and for a while it looked as if the whole building were on fire. Four shots were fired and passing citizens quickly succeeded in removing the stove and extinguishing the flames before they gained any headway. Mr. and Mrs. O'Rear desire to extend their thanks to the many people who so quickly rendered aid and effectively prevented the fire from getting beyond control,

Will Move to Mt. Sterling

Mrs. Geo. W. Anderson, Jr., and children, of Beattyville, visited her mother, Mrs. E. N. Wilson, a few days last week and went from here to Mt. Sterling. They returned Monday night for another short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are preparing to move to Mt. Sterling, so their children can attend the splendid school there. Their oldest son, Geo. W. Jr., has been a student of the Mt. Sterling school the past month.

Wheat Sowing Time

The Federal Agricultural Department advises sowing wheat in Kentucky about Oct. 10 to avoid the Hessian fly. Many farmers are through sowing while others have not begun. The 1919 crop was disappointing to many farmers in this county who sowed their first crop last year. This will discourage some of them in sowing any this fall. The same conditions exist the whole country over, and this is most apt to cause a short crop next year.

Income Tax in Estill

The Federal Tax inspector, upon leaving Irvine last week, stated there was more income tax paid in Estill county than any other county its size in the state and more than many counties larger and with many times the population of our county.—Estill Tribune.

Farm Advertising

In glancing over a local paper recently it was learned by actual count that of 350 inches local display advertising, 220 inches were advertising farm lands. It would thus seem, that the whole world is for sale. Nearly every local paper in the Bluegrass is brim full of land advertisements.

Buys Car of Cattle

W. A. Berry has purchased a car of butcher cattle from various persons in this end of the county at from 7 to 8½ cents according to quality and will ship the same to Cincinnati market from here Friday.

County Court

County Court at Stanton Monday was largely attended and many causes were disposed of. A special term will be held Oct. 18 to try some cases that could not be tried Monday.

Railroad Accident Prevention

Drive October 18th to 31st
The following appeal is made to all railroad employees and the public interested in the "Safety First" plan. We are giving a copy of this letter through the courtesy of the efficient agent at this place:

The administration is intensely interested in the safety first work, and it is especially desirable that every officer and employee in railroad service should make unusual efforts to create, if possible, a clear record of no personal injury to patrons, other employees or themselves in so far as they can individually be of assistance in any manner in preventing such. This especially to be attained in the great ACCIDENT PREVENTION DRIVE, Oct. 18th to 31st, inclusive and thereby get the habit.

You are therefore instructed in preparation for such to clean up railroad premises of all obstructions and interferences liable to cause personal injury to employees and others. Arrange accordingly at once to have railroad premises in the clearest possible condition from any interference of personal safety by October 18th, and keep same in such condition thereafter.

It is desired that all concerned "think safety first" in connection with their service as it affects others, as well as themselves, and that they cooperate to the fullest extent individually in practice and precept, and in talking and teaching safety first and ACCIDENT PREVENTION DRIVE.

Those addressed in this circular are requested to give this matter their personal attention and cooperation, to read this circular to all employees under their supervision, and to post same by Agents and Conductors at stations and in cabooses and by foreman at such places that the circular can be read by all employees under their supervision. Copy will be posted on bulletin boards, and agents will be furnished additional copies and are instructed to furnish the editors and managers of newspapers a copy of this circular, also to furnish principals of schools give this matter as great publicity as they can by publishing in the press and reading to the scholars assembled in schools and assist in any manner they can to secure the cooperation of the public, as patrons of the railroad, to be careful to look out for their own and each others' safety, while on railroad premises and to extend same precautions to their every-day avocations.

Good Rains

Good rains fell here the first of the week and raised the river considerably. We had become quite dry again. The rains will push up fall grass and thereby defer the feeding period. We, so far, have had no frost, but it was most cool enough the first of the week. October 20 is the average date for killing frosts in Kentucky.

The bridge is badly needed at this ford and it is a sure go, so we are informed, if the citizens of this end will only wake up to their duty, then we will get what is duly ours and that which we deserve. Here's hoping and trusting to see the bridge in use before the stream gets flush.

School trustee election was held here Saturday with two candidates on the ticket, nominated by the women. Very little interest was shown by the men, so the fairer sex took up the reins with Mrs. Geo. Grayett Judge, and Mrs. S. G. Baker Clerk. They held and polled the vote that came out legally, is the presumption. But owing to the small majority between the two contending parties, it is rumored the minority candidate may contest the election.

Census Takers in Demand

Joseph W. Morris, Supervisor of Census Seventh Kentucky Congressional District, is receiving applications for census enumerators to take the census of the various counties in the district. Applications are requested from each of the twelve counties which includes Powell. The work starts January 1st, 1920, and is quite profitable yielding about six dollars per day in counties like Powell. Enumerators will be assigned work in home counties whenever possible. Applications for these positions should be in by Oct. 15. Any one with good common school education can do the work. Persons interested should make application to Joseph W. Morris, Supervisor of pensions, Federal Building, Lexington, Ky. Politics make no difference in the selection of enumerators. If you want a job that will take you a visit to your neighbors' home this winter while you earn good pay write at once as directed above.

To Build New Home

M. F. Carr is hauling lumber from Brodhead-Garrett's mill to erect a new dwelling on the place he recently acquired from his father-in-law, R. W. Garrett.

And There are Other Profiteers

Doubtless there has been a good deal of grafting on the consuming public, and the profiteers are not confined to any locality or section of the country. They are in the manufacturing centers, and they wholesale and retail foods. Thousands of them are doing pleasant handshaking acts in the "corner store," and the fellow who wants four dollars for moving a trunk, or an excessive sum for fixing the bad boards on the back porch, is in the same class with the other gougers, who because they are big and powerful, are threatened by the Attorney General.

Notice to City Tax Payers

City Taxes for 1919 are now due and should be paid immediately as the city is in need of the funds; as an additional teacher in our school must be secured at once to relieve the overcrowded condition with the present teachers.

There are a number of back taxes due, which also must be immediately paid.

A. P. JOHNSON,

Do Kentuckians want a hand picked, hand controlled Governor?

It is common knowledge that the Republican Party in Kentucky is a "one man" party---solely in the control of A. T. Hert. It was shown at Lexington where the rank and file of the party were disfranchised of their primary rights and forced to accept a slate already prepared for them.

Witness the high handed methods of Searcy, Hert's man "Friday", in his treatment of George W. Jolly of Owensboro who was clearly within his rights in seeking preference at the primary. Witness also the disgraceful primary election in the negro ward in Louisville where the Republicans did not dare let the negroes vote as they wished.

Put Morrow in the Governor's chair at Frankfort and Kentucky will be governed from Louisville. It will be dominated by this one man whose interest is selfish and whose purpose is clearly to use Kentucky merely as a stepping stone to influence and authority in National politics. Hert will push the button! Searcy will pull the string! And Morrow will do the jumping!

WILL BUILD FARM HOME FOR WAIFS

"Back To the Soil" For Destitute In Kentucky Children's Home

GOVERNOR INDORSES PLAN

The Kentucky Children's Home Society, exclusively devoted to the care of homeless children, will make a drive throughout the state the week of October 27 to 31, for the purpose of raising $300,000. Definite plans have been made and Governor Black has issued a proclamation asking the unqualified support of all Kentuckians.

The Kentucky Children's Home is one of the state's unique institutions. During its twenty-five years of existence it has sent 9,000 children into good homes and has insured them "a square deal" from the world.

It cares for children who otherwise would be uncared for. It gives protection to those who otherwise would have no protection. It is operated by a personnel that works because its members love to work among children.

Need New Equipment.

At present, the society is housed in a group of old residences in Louisville. These buildings are not adapted to the needs of the institution and children are crowded. They must sleep in crowded rooms and play on crowded play grounds.

When the drive is completed, the society plans to eliminate this congestion. Eighty-six acres of land have been purchased ten miles from Louisville on the Louisville and Nashville railroad and a complete cottage farm system has been planned.

This will give children all the room they need, will insure their health and take them from the muck and corrupt influences of the city.

The society now has 200 children under its care. When the new home is completed it will be able to care for many more.

The success of the drive is not a question of locality. The society is a state institution and cares for the state's homeless children. Those in one section are as interested as those in another.

Given Wide Support.

The proposed campaign for funds has thus far received unified support. Clergymen, teachers and prominent citizens have signified their approval. One hundred and ten county school superintendents are backing the proposition. Hundreds of teachers say they will do all in their power to insure its success.

School children who have homes will be given opportunities to assist in providing a home for those children who have none.

Each child will be asked to give. All schools will be solicited by a committee. There will be no competition, but pupils will be asked to contribute what they can.

Citizens' committees are being formed and will canvass the town in which organized.

Remember, it's for the children who haven't the home your child has.

The success of the drive will give health to children who otherwise would be emaciated and weak. It will give them an opportunity to become good citizens.

The proposition will shortly be up to the people of Kentucky. Kentucky will see that it goes through with a smash.

The Steel Strike

Since the opening day the steel strike has been watched in its every detail by the public men and students of industrial conditions in Washington. The steel industry has asked for no sympathy, and evidently the public mind is concerning itself but little regarding the interests involved in the ownership and management of the industry. But it is a very patent fact that Washington is overwhelmingly convinced that the steel strike is the result of an unreasoning exercise of the power of bad influences over great groups of foreign-born laborers who have centered in this industry.
